

Prof. J. Herman Moore,
THE PRINCE OF MYSTERY.

This remarkable young man, the prototype and peer of the great Hermann, is in our city, giving the most remarkable series of performances in necromancy and magic ever witnessed at the hands of an Afro-American. His feats are new and original, and hold the most intelligent audiences spell-bound. He recently appeared at the Hampton Institute, before the school and faculty and before the Negro Conference there. He has successfully entertained the wealthy and aristocratic Jackie Island Club ten miles off from Brunswick, Ga., and has given exhibitions of his wonderful skill before nearly all the leading colored schools of the country. Prof. Moore is an eloquent of talent as well as a magician, and assisted by Mr. B. H. Evans, a premier ventriloquist and second sight artist, a well-rounded and refined performance is presented pleasing alike to all tastes. The Colored American advises all of its readers to go and see "His Royal Highness, the Prince of Mystery."

FEDERATION OF WOMEN.

Mrs. Davis Points Out The Advantages Accruing From Concentration of Effort on the Part of District Organizations.

An invitation was given all colored women interested in women's work in clubs to be present at a meeting held in Met. A. M. E. Church Sunday afternoon, last, to hear Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, of Chicago, district organizer of the National Federation of Colored Women, and also to consider the advisability of a federation of the women's clubs of this city.

Quite a large number of persons were present and listened to the very able paper of Mrs. Davis while she discussed in an able way the unlimited scope of women's work, and set forth in a most convincing style the advantages of a strong union of all women doing anything for the uplift of the race.

Thirteen organizations were represented in the open congress which followed Mrs. Davis' paper. Among them were: A National Sewing Society, several W. C. T. U.s, W. R. C. of G. A. R., Sojourner Truth Home Association, Alpha Charity Club and Fireside School organization of Anacostia, Trained Nurses' Home Association, Charity Clubs and Mission Clubs on several churches.

The need of Federation being so apparent, a committee was appointed, by Miss M. R. Bowen, who presided, to confer with the organizations which they represented and formulate some plans looking to concentrated effort for the advancement of women's work in the near future.

Miss Williams of the Rescue Work of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Jennie Watson, of the Adelphi Club, of St. Paul, Minn., gave interesting sketches of the work women are doing in these cities.

DR. CORROTHERS' GREAT RALLY.

Rev. S. L. Corrothers is doing a phenomenal work as pastor of Galbraith A. M. E. Zion Church. Under his energetic guidance, the oppressive mortgage is melting away like snow under a noonday sun. The grand rally now in progress has already netted over $2,900—$1,700 by subscriptions and over $1,200 by contributions and club effort. The movement for wiping out the entire debt of $4,700 will go on until the first Sunday in December, when it is hoped that success will crown the labors of the congregation. Dr. Corrothers has a number of plans in view looking to an enlargement of the church's field, concerning which due announcement will be made.
